Youth Camp Code of Conduct

Your child will follow all of the policies and guidelines of RyeTV Camp including:

1. To be nice and respectful to other campers, the RTV counselors and the RTV staff.
2. To be safe and only play safe games while at the area around RTV studio and school grounds.
3. To help other campers and counselors when needed.
4. To clean up after themselves – including the area around studio.
5. To stay where they are supposed to and not leave group without permission from counselor.

The following are the consequences should a child violate this code while attending RyeTV Camp:

1. Camp Staff will first verbally warn campers breaking these rules and guidelines.
2. If behavior or action persists, camper will not participate in the activity.
3. If behavior persists, campers will be sent to RyeTV Office with the Coordinator. (Parents will be notified at this point.)
4. RyeTV may send home any camper if it is decided that it is in the best interest RyeTV Camp program and/or campers. Immediate dismissal of a camper may result from severe infractions.

The following actions are considered severe infractions and will not be tolerated:

1. Disrespecting staff, other campers or camp property
2. Any form of verbal or physical bullying
3. Inappropriate name-calling and foul language
4. Not following directions
5. Aggressive physical contact (hitting, biting, spitting and shoving)
6. Straying from group into dangerous areas (i.e the brook, construction area, parking lots)
7. Throwing objects (rocks, sticks, sand etc.)
8. Damaging video equipment

Parents are ultimately responsible for the actions of their child/children. If at any point there is an issue with a child and the parent has been non-responsive or does not accept responsibility for the child(ren), RyeTV reserves the right to immediately expel the camper(s) and child(ren) must be picked up immediately. In that instance, no financial credit will be provided.
